

1960S MID-CENTURY RECTANGULAR TEAK COFFEE TABLE 4FT LONG

SKU: GD1648

£385.00

A beautifully presented mid-century teak coffee table designed by the British maker Gordon Russell. Measuring H39.5cm x L121.5cm x W46cm, it's an ideal piece for small narrow interior layout or as a side table next to a sofa.

It offers that classic teak finish, the table showcases a striking two-tone edge detail that adds a touch of extra detail while the tapered legs enhance its elegant silhouette. Its excellent condition and beautiful sheen highlight the table's timeless appeal, reflecting the craftsmanship synonymous with Russell's designs.

The coffee table embodies the essence of mid-century modern aesthetics and offers great value for those wanting a piece of genuine mid-century vintage.

Founded in Worcester, Gordon Russell Ltd became synonymous with fine British craftsmanship and innovative design during the mid-20th century. The company was celebrated for its commitment to quality and functionality, producing classic pieces that elegantly combined traditional techniques with modern sensibilities. It's a testament to the quality that many Gordon Russell pieces have stood the test of time.
