

1960S MID CENTURY TEAK SIDEBOARD CREDENZA DESIGNED BY ARTHUR EDWARDS FOR WHITE & NEWTON

SKU: GD1461

£0.00

A superb Mid Century Teak Sideboard in excellent order with good depth of colour. A rare and desirable model designed by Arthur Edwards for British maker White and Newton.

A nicely proportioned piece, not too big at 5ft 6" wide so will fit most spaces. Constructed from solid teak and teak veneers, the sideboard features reeded drawer fronts with same detailing to the handles.

A well constructed quality piece, with four cantered drawers flanked by shelved cupboard with drop down doors.

In very good condition, some wear marks but overall in excellent order and as to be expected from this British firm, a quality piece, well made, with full length piano hinges to the doors and dovetail joints to the drawers. Legs also in good solid condition.
