

ANTIQUÉ 19TH CENTURY CHINESE ELM QUANYI HORSESHOE BACK ARMCHAIR

SKU: GD1525-1

£1,085.00

This stunning 19th century Chinese Quanyi armchair showcases the exceptional craftsmanship and distinctive design of the period. Crafted from warm, honey-brown elm, the chair's superb form and impeccable construction make it a true standout piece.

The chair's defining feature is its striking horseshoe-shaped back, which wraps around you in a welcoming embrace. The sweeping arms gently cradle the wrists, providing exceptional comfort and support. The curved, single vertical slat in the backrest features an elegant crest motif, adding visual interest and elegance.

The straight back posts and bowed side posts create a captivating interplay of lines, while the circular section posts that continue through the mat seat frame to form the square section legs lend exceptional stability. Curved aprons, double side stretchers, and a single back stretcher further enhance the chair's structural integrity and visual appeal.

With its generous proportions and superb posture, this Chinese Quanyi horseshoe armchair is built to last. The warm, honey-brown tone of the elm wood is complemented by a beautifully aged patina, giving the piece a sense of timeless character. Solidly constructed and ready for use, this impressive occasional chair will make a striking addition to any space.
