

CARVED STONE TROUGH PLANTER WEATHERED SANDSTONE GARDEN FEATURE

SKU: GD1622

£825.00

Crafted from rugged sandstone, originally carved as a drinking trough, dating back to the early part of the 19th century, the rectangular sink shaped trough offers a beautifully weathered appearance, with an original patina of moss and lichen that gives the piece an established, timeworn look.

Despite its age, this sturdy stone planter is in excellent condition, ready to grace your garden or home with a distinctive charm. Use it outdoors to add texture and age to a new garden design, or display it indoors as a unique decorative accent piece. Its versatile nature also makes it an ideal container for plants, though it does not have any drainage holes.

For a collector or designer seeking to infuse their space with layered history and natural character. Embrace the beauty of time-worn materials.
