

GARDEN STATUE - FIGURE OF VENUS

SKU: GD1291

£0.00

Made after the 18th Century model by Christopher-Gabriel Allegrain, this mid 20th Century reconstituted cast model is of good size (3ft in Height) and has benefitted from years of exposure to the weather, giving it a beautiful aged patina.

A great addition to any outside Garden feature or Garden room.

The piece is in good sound condition and is free from damage or repairs, the piece has naturally weathered as seen in photos.
