

ITALIAN GLASS TOP ON CHROME EXECUTIVE 'NOMOS' DESK BY NORMAN FOSTER FOR TECNO 1980S

SKU: GD1460

£2,925.00

A Large Executive Desk, designed by Sir Norman Foster and manufactured by Tecno, Italy. This vintage example dates to late 1980s and in superb original condition. A modern and sleek desk designed by one of the most notable architects of his time. This piece works equally well in a cotemporary setting or an old barn setting and makes a superb design statement.

Die cast aluminium chrome base frame with Glass top on white background so its not see through, it also has a modesty glass panel with a silver tint to the front for privacy and a trunking cage for cable management (both of which can be unbolted). Adjustable feet allow for levelling on uneven floors.

A rare opportunity to own a quality design piece for home or office.
