Condition Note: Our Barnfind collection consist of salvaged items that have been found during our extensive road-trips, some pieces we find are not always suitable for our main collection but are still worthy of a good home. It may also be the case that some of the items listed are waiting for restoration but this provides an opportunity for clients to find pieces barn fresh and carry out their own restoration. Please note that the items listed under our Barnfind collection have not been cleaned or prepared for use therefore please expect that they will need some dusting off and cleaning. Where possible, if there is any obvious damage or repair needed we will add this in the description and photos but please note that these are barn fresh and may need some level of restoration.

Delivery: Note that our Barnfind Collection is priced nett and does not include delivery or packaging. We always aim to use the most competitive delivery options to get the items to you safely so please enquire about delivery cost. We are also happy to accommodate collections and can be flexible with out of hours collection times.
