

UNUSUAL HARDWOOD IROKO AND CAST IRON GARDEN BENCH | PORCH LOGIA SEATING

SKU: GD1463

£0.00

A highly unusual solid hardwood bench on cast iron frame, great form and colour. This is a heavy hardwood iroko wood bench, with low back and a sweeping curved seat which is very comfortable, possibly an old waiting area bench or railway seating.

Slatted seat sits on three cast iron cradles, which are joined to the wooden frame, has a Scandinavian feel to it and has a lovely warm colour tone, would work equally well in an indoor or outdoor seating area.

In excellent condition, the wood does appear to have been painted at some point in its life with some remanence of old paint still visible but is now back to its natural wood finish.

Seat height = 40cm / 16"
